Nature of Contract: (Briefly describe the general terms of the contract)

The Department of Justice is authorized to make funds available to units of local government under the Local Law Enforcement Block Grants Program to underwrite projects to reduce crime and improve public safety. San Bernardino County has been authorized to apply for funding under this grant in the amount of $170,940 for the aforementioned purposes from the date of award through two years from the date the funds are actually received. The LLEBG Advisory Board met on June 19, 2003, and recommended the following projects to be funded with the 2003 Local Law Enforcement Block Grant: 1) the hiring of one probation officer for drug courts in Big Bear and Barstow, and the procurement of the necessary equipment for the officer, $72,170 in grant funds; 2) the purchase of an inventory control and warehouse management system for use at West Valley Detention Center replacing a broken and obsolete system, $59,400 in grant funds; 3) procurement of an application support and maintenance contract for the Law and Justice Group's eFiling and Red Light server, $28,800 in grant funds; and 4) the development of the Law and Justice Group's Storage Technology Optical Records Management (STORM) project, $10,570 in grant funds.
